From the Desk of Bishop Harry L. Seawright

Dear Clergy Family,

It is with much joy, peace and love that Supervisor Seawright and I greet the Clergy Family of the 9th Episcopal District!

Under the African Methodist Episcopal Church, the Clergy Family Information Center (CFIC) is a global online network, inclusive of several thousand email recipients from Episcopal Districts 1-20, to whom bereavement and congratulatory notifications are sent electronically. The CFIC is operative within the framework of the Commission on Social Action; Bishop Frank M. Reid, III, Commission Chair; Mrs. Jackie DuPont Walker, Social Action Consultant/Director and Mrs. Ora L. Easley, Administrator of the Clergy Family Information Center.

The Clergy Family Information Center (CFIC) is a ministry of caring and compassion which connects us in oneness, as we are now reaching out to our sisters and brothers of the faith. Countless clergy families benefit from the ministry, as it helps to keep us connected as a church family. It is a seven-day a week and holidays endeavor reaching across continents and oceans. Through the efforts of the online ministry, clergy families can today, express words of comfort and sympathy to one another in a timely fashion, ministering to each other in times of need. This is also a great way to communicate news, such as congratulations, births, anniversaries of 25 years or more and birthdays of persons 75 years or more.

I have appointed Sister Nell Hayes to serve as the 9th Episcopal District Clergy Family Information Reporter. Please contact her with any information that you wish to have published by the CFIC. I also need your help in ensuring that family members involved in these events have given their permission for this information to be shared with other 9th District Conferences and the Connectional Church.

Please submit your information to be shared and released to Sister Nell Hayes, she can be reached at:
